CAMP DIRECTOR

Directing the camp is Kenneth "Bear" Davis. Coach Davis embarks on his sixth season as the head coach of the Robert Morris University men's lacrosse team. Since being named the program's first head coach in 2004, Davis has spent the past four seasons building the Colonials from the ground up.

His instruction and guidance have been evident in the team's development over the past five seasons, as each year his team becomes stronger and a bigger threat against opponents. Last season Davis coached his team to its first ever winning season with a 9-7 record and notable wins over formidable opponents. RMU's success started in its home opener when the Colonials defeated Penn State in overtime, which began to a six-game winning streak. In addition, Davis directed his team to RMU's first ever league wins with victories over Drexel and Sacred Heart. Davis' success in 2009 evolved from a breakthrough season in 2007 when he registered his first victories over Division I opponents with wins over VMI and Wagner. In 2008, he led his squad to even better results, earning five wins over Division I opponents and falling short in four games by just one goal, with two of those contests being against nationally-ranked and NCAA participant Hofstra and NCAA participant Canisius.

Before being named the head coach at Robert Morris, Davis was key factor in the start of Wheeling Jesuit's men's lacrosse program. Davis took the Cardinals from a 2-11 record in the first year of the program in 2000 to an 8-4 record and a No. 10 national ranking in 2003. The Cardinals also had four players named to the All-Independent First Team in 2003, including Jeremy Johnson, who was the first player in Wheeling Jesuit lacrosse history to score 100 career goals. Johnson also was named a second team All-American, while goalie Nick Asmo was named an honorable mention All-American.

Prior to Wheeling Jesuit, Davis spent the 1999 season as a graduate assistant coach with Division III Marietta College. Between May and July of 2002, Davis was the assistant coach of the Czech Republic men's national lacrosse team, where he helped coach the team in the 2002 Prague Cup as well as the 2002 ILF World Games in Australia.

Joining Coach Davis on staff are assistant coaches Andrew McMinn, J.D. Wilson, and Dan Mulford.

CAMP SETTING

The Nike Lacrosse Camp at Robert Morris University provides high school players the true feeling of a college lacrosse experience. The staff constructively breaks your game down to the lowest level and builds it back up. Players wishing to play at the next level find this style of instruction invaluable.

Located 20 minutes outside downtown Pittsburgh, instruction takes place in the Joe Walton Stadium and nearby practice fields. Overnight campers are supervised in student dorms located a short walk from the fields.
